FOOD WITH A VIEW

Berlin Food & Photography

A regional highlight that we never tire to visit is Kronberg in Taunus. A beautiful castle that had been home to the Kronberg knights for centuries, historic buildings which date back to the High Middle Ages, wonderful gardens with small public footpaths – and, of course, food shopping opportunities! At the most lovely little shop Zeit & Genuss (German language), I bought Hessian chutney with sourcroust, apple wine jelly and apple wine mustard. The latter has been tested already – so fruity and hot, we just love it.
